

3 Broncos Selected for All-State Art Symposium 2022

Only 100 out of 1,600 Submissions Accepted Statewide

Three Brookwood Visual Arts students Deborah Abraham, Adelaide Kezsler, and Devon Thomas have been selected to display their work at the annual All-State Art Symposium hosted by Columbus State University on February 20-25, 2022.

The competition consists of multiple rounds of judging (area level, state level, and then a final judging for awards).

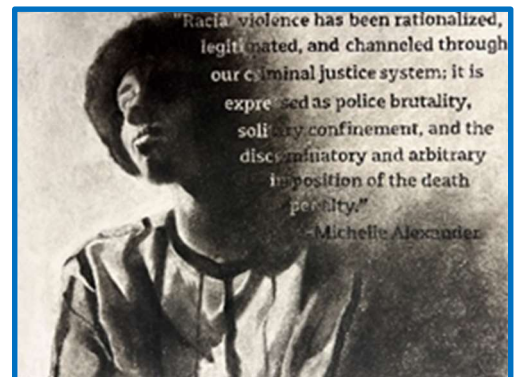

This year, the symposium attracted 1,600 submissions and only 100 works were accepted. Below are Brookwood's state winners.
