

Rising to 5th Grade Summer Reading

RECOMMENDED BOOK - Insignificant Events in the Life of the Cactus by Dusti Bowling

**Parents can post pics on social media of students participating.*

Use: #TESSummerReading

*Read in your pajamas.	Read a non-fiction book about plant or animal cells. Draw a picture of the cell.	Read a book online. (Raz-Kids, eCLASS, Epic, Gwinnett County Public Library)	Read a book about World War I or World War II.	Read a book from your favorite genre.
Read a non-fiction book about the Wright Brothers, George Washington Carver, or Thomas Edison.	Read a fantasy or science fiction book.	Read a book by your favorite author.	*Read a book at the public library or at the park.	Read a book that is part of a series.
Read a book for at least 30 minutes without stopping.	Read a graphic novel of your choice.	Read ANY Book you LOVE!	Read at least 3 poems.	Read a book about the Civil War.
Read a book recommended to you by a family member or friend.	Visit the public library. Check out at least 3 books OR Check the GCPL's website &amp; see what they offer.	Read a historical fiction book.	Read a book from a genre you often avoid.	Read a non-fiction book about an animal.
Read a magazine or newspaper.	Read a joke or riddle book. Write down your favorite joke or riddle.	Read two picture books by the same author.	Read a non-fiction book about earthquakes or tsunamis	*Read a mystery book with a flashlight.