

Teacher of the Year!!
Jason Tyler, 8th Grade Teacher!

I instill confidence, high expectations, and love in each of my students like he or she was my own daughter. They know I care and love them through their failures and successes. They know that my first concern is them, not their grades or test scores.