ART & DESIGN CONSERVATORY AUDITION REQUIREMENTS

Auditions for the visual arts conservatory program contains two portions—a portfolio review and a live demonstration of artistic ability. Students should look over audition requirements long before the live audition to be well acquainted with the process, answer timely questions, and work on their required pieces with ample time. All portfolios are due prior to the beginning of the live audition.

Part 1: Portfolio Review

Works completed under the guidance of an art teacher and/or that are recent (done within the last year) are preferred.

Contents: Your portfolio should include 6 works of art.

1. 4 of the pieces must meet the following requirements:
 - a. A drawing or painting of a pair of tennis shoes/boots
 - b. A drawing or painting of an arrangement of kitchen tools/utensils.
 - c. A drawing or painting of a landmark or building structure
 - d. Self-portrait (any medium) realistic to the best of the student's ability
2. 2 pieces are your choice
 - a. Media can include drawing, painting, printmaking, photography, graphic design, sculpture, and/or ceramics.
 - b. No copyrighted material (i.e., Anime, Manga, cartoons, or images of celebrities will be accepted.)
 - c. Sketchbooks will not be accepted as an additional piece option
3. Size can range from 8.5 x 11" to no larger than 18 x 24".
4. Presentation: Pieces should not be framed. Sculptural work and works on canvas may be included but should be represented by a photograph or a digital print. Three-dimensional work should be photographed against a contrasting background. There is no set style or dimensions of the portfolio itself.

Part 2: Live Audition

1. During the audition, you will be asked to complete a series of aesthetic prompts in person. This can include drawing, photography, and sculpture. The pieces will be evaluated based on evidence and understanding of line, tone, form, perspective, emphasis, and composition. Most materials will be provided, but you may bring your own if you wish to do so.

2. The series of exercises may include:

- a. Drawing from observation
 - b. Creating compositions by responding to phrases or narratives
 - c. Creating compositions and designs by drawing and/or manipulating various materials within a frame of reference
- The portfolio will be scored separately after the live audition is complete. This means students should be prepared to leave their portfolio with the art instructors. Make sure appropriate contact information is included on or in the portfolio. All portfolios will be available for students to pick up at the end of the audition window.
 - Formal attire is not required, but you should dress neatly and presentably. Most people dress business casual.
 - Parents will not be allowed in the audition area.
