When To Call a Counselor

The list below gives several ideas on when a counselor's involvement could be beneficial for you and your family. The Counselors at Moore encourage parental involvement, they are usually a good starting point to get the answers you want and need!

• When your student is having difficulty achieving academically.

• When family changes interfere with academic progress.

• When you want to become more involved in your student’s educational and career choices.

• When you want to arrange a meeting with several teachers or with both a teacher and a counselor.

• When you need help to interpret tests and school records and track school progress.

• When you want to discover available community resources and agencies for your student or your family.
