General Details:

- Students are expected to be in class start times. Attendance will be taken at the start of each academic class period.
- During each class, the students and teacher will engage in live instruction. The teacher will create a classroom setting that includes opportunities for direct instruction from the teacher, student collaboration and interaction, guided practice, feedback, and independent learning tasks.
- Support Times noted on the schedules are reserved for teachers to reach out to individual students and small groups of students for additional support and instruction. These students will be invited to participate by their teacher, as needed. Teachers may also offer additional support outside of the scheduled times.
- On Friday, all students will log in to their Homeroom class by 9:15am for Advisement time. This is expected and teachers will take attendance.
- Live "Help Sessions" will be available each week for students. The teachers for each of your child's academic classes will communicate the process for how they will provide additional assistance on a weekly basis beyond the classroom and support times.
